MEDICINAL.

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and scaly and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.

What is the cause of all this? Impure blood. And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.

If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the dormant action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

Write to our Doctor.

To have the exclusive services of one of the most eminent physicians in the United States, write freely all the particulars of your case. You will receive a prompt reply without cost.

Address, Dr. J. C. Milburn, Lowell, Mass.

THE CZAR'S HOPES BLIGHTED.

A despatch to the London Daily News from The Hague says that Germany now accepts a permanent tribunal of arbitration as outlined in the British and American plans. Her acceptance is not yet official, but the German delegates privately informed their colleagues Monday afternoon that they had received it is sufficient to that effect. On the other hand, the German delegates, speaking at the Conference with authority, smashed up the Russian scheme of disarmament.

Col Von Gross von Schwarzhoff, the military expert, spoke for an hour on the subject with overpowering frankness. He contended that a reduction of peace forces in no wise implied a reduction of offensive power. The questions of the length of military service, the developments of railways, the rapidity of mobilization and economic conditions were all factors in the military strength of a country, and to take one term only of the problem and argue that the reducing of forces all around would leave the various countries on the same relative footing toward one another as before, however possible it might appear to an outsider, was, to a military expert, so manifest an absurdity that he wondered it had been put forward presumably in earnest.

Colonel Von Schwarzhoff's speech caused the greatest sensation that the conference has yet had. Many of the delegates, when interviewed, unanimously declared that it was a smashing blow to the Russian arguments. Nobody expected such a brusque and unconditional rejection of the Czar's proposals. The select committee of the peace conference was engaged all day yesterday with its examination of an arbitration code, under the presidency of M. Bourgeois, of the French delegation, who returned last night from Paris, whither he was summoned by the President Loubet in connection with the ministerial crisis. The opinion prevails that the Russian proposals for the limitation of armaments, even if they were better prepared and contained satisfactory measures for the control of the armaments, will be rejected by a large majority.

Nothing seems to have been decided regarding the competence of the conference to examine the capture of private property at sea during naval warfare. The ceremonies at Delit, whither the American delegates will proceed on July 4 to lay a silver wreath on the tomb of the Dutch philosopher, Hugo Grotius, the "Father of International Law," will begin at 11 o'clock this morning. After the speeches are delivered there will be singing by a chorus under the direction of Arnold Spoel, the famous baritone of The Hague.

Queen Wilhelmina will give a dinner to the delegates at the palace at The Hague on July 6. This is regarded as an indication that the conference will end about that time.

SOCIETY BEHIND THE BAR.

The Albert Hall bazaar, in aid of the fund of the Charing Cross Hospital, was the crowning charitable function of the London society season. The admirable, untiring work of Mesdames Paget and Ronalds in connection therewith is a matter of general comment, and promises to lead to insistent demands for their services in all future events of a similar character. It was an immense success, beyond the most rosy dreams. The receipts were over $60,000. The flower stall, where the Duchess of Marlborough and Mrs. Paget were active, took in $2,000, and the American stall of Mesdames Mackay, Ronalds, Bradley-Martin and Lady Randolph Churchill, netted $1,500. Mrs. Brown Potter says a thousand drinks were sold, and the tips to the ladies dispensing them aggregated $600.

The greatest success of the bazaar was the American bar, at which Ladies Heeketh and Anglessey and Mrs. Frank Mackay, all Americans, assisted Mrs. Brown Potter. But the chief attraction of the bar was in white bar dress customary in America, but quite a novelty in London. They included the Duke of Manchester, Lord Yarmouth, Lord Vivian, Lord Edward Somerset, Lord Henry Somerset and Mr. Ralph Pultney. They were all in much demand by fashionable customers, and received large tips, a lady presenting the Duke of Manchester with a £10 note ($50) in payment for a cocktail, telling him to keep the change.

ALEXANDRIA TO RICHMOND AND RETURN.

On account of Fourth of July holiday the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged to sell special excursion tickets to Richmond on July 1, 2, 3 and 4, good to return until July 7, at the rate of $4.60 from Alexandria and $4.85 from Washington.

Thomas Thurman, deputy sheriff of Troy, Mo., says if every one in the United States could discover the virtue of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles, rectal troubles and skin diseases, the demand could not be supplied. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lily, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak that I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough or several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who knew me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, MRS. MARY A. BEARD, Claremore, Ark. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King St.
